

spark

festival of electronic music and art

February 16–20

Most events are FREE*. All events are open to the public.

Wednesday, February 168–10pm "Rhythm Science" with DJ Spooky*
*$5 U of M Students/$7 General PublicCoffman Theater*Thursday, February 17

8–11:30am Lectures by Artists and Scholars

In Flux Auditorium,
Regis Center for Art11:30am–1:30pm Panel Session:
"The Polarized Composer: Addressing the Conflict of Musical Upbringings of Today's Young Composers"225 Ferguson Hall

3–4pm Lectures About Installations

Weisman Art Museum

4–5:30pm Video and 60x60 Concert

Weisman Art Museum

7–9pm Experimental Performances°

The Whole, Coffman Union

9:30pm–12:30am Experimental Performances°

Town Hall Brewery
1430 Washington Ave S*Friday, February 18

8–10am Lectures by Artists and Scholars

90 Ferguson Hall

10:30am–12pm Philippe Manoury, Masterclass

90 Ferguson Hall

2–3:30pm Spark Cinema Show

Weisman Art Museum

4:30–6pm Eight-Channel "Audio Immersion" Concert

In Flux Auditorium

8–9:30pm Electroacoustic Concert

Lloyd Ultan Recital Hall, located in Ferguson Hall

10pm–12:30am Experimental Performances°

Town Hall BrewerySaturday, February 19

8–11am Lectures by Artists and Scholars

225 Ferguson Hall

11:15am–12:30pm Next Ens Concert

Lloyd Ultan Recital Hall

2:30–4pm Keynote Lecture by Philippe Manoury

225 Ferguson Hall4:30–6pm Shiao Uen Ding Recital, works for piano and electronicsLloyd Ultan Recital Hall

8–9:30pm Electroacoustic Concert

Ted Mann Concert Hall

10pm–1am Experimental/DJ Performances°

Town Hall BrewerySunday, February 20

11am–12pm Coffee Concert

In Flux Auditorium

12:30pm–3pm Symposium Fast Forward

In Flux Auditorium

°Including IDM, Jazz-Inspired, Glitch, and more

For complete lecture and concert programs, visit

<http://spark.cla.umn.edu>